

On October 30, 1995 a confidential source, [REDACTED] telephonically contacted SA [REDACTED]

The source related that negotiations continue between an unknown Los Angeles Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and "Dateline", an NBC television show, for the purchase of a video tape depicting the arrival of the Ryder truck at the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City. The current offer by Dateline is $880,000.00, to be paid in a manner so as not to create a paper trail.

In addition, the tape has also been offered to CBS. Reportedly, CBS has agreed to negotiate for the tape on two conditions: that McVey is clear on the tape, and that the second person also be clear on the tape.

The source further related that Jerlow and the agent served together in the U.S. Marine Corps from 1982 to 1988 and were in Beirut, Lebanon together.
