Kathy:

Writing with regard to my recent letter to you about the Murrah Building tapes. Any word back from your clients about producing those tapes? I would like to avoid a Motion to Compel. And as you know, Trentadue v. FBI, 572 F.3d 794 (10th Cir. 2009), allows for discovery of the agency in this situation. Also, apologize for the wrong date on my letter. It was not e-mailed to you on April 9, 2009 but, instead, was sent January 22, 2010.

Thanks.
