John,

First of all Happy Easter to you and your family. Yes, that sounds absolutely correct about David. I only introduced you to one guy that work with guns, and that was David. I am glad you found your notes. I never could remember David's last name.

I am doing well. Just waiting to get out of here in June. I hope by then Ross has gotten this story moving, so we can keep busy. I will check with you later. Have a nice week-end, take care.

Don

Hello Don,

Found my notes on David. See if this sounds right to you. His name was David Mann. He had a P.O. Box in St Johns AZ. I pick him up in Payson Az on our way up to Surplus & Stuff in Snow Flake AZ and met with a guy name Tim. He show him his weapons that he was making and how he could make them anything they wanted. Then from there we took a trip up to where the guy keep the tractors that we were thinking the dope was coming in from. Meet the guy from Liberty Township from Mesa in Show Low, AZ that ran that church and we were thinking we selling the drugs to the bikers. We were going to get David to sell weapons too them. This trip is where i got David in with this guys so I could move on. Does this sound right to you. I found a whole page on him in a box in my shed that I had sitting there with some other papers. Also have more info on him and meets at gun store (Lone Wolf) and other places like Scottsdale, before we turn him lose.

Hope you are doing well. Hope our story gets moving soon. Ross says it should be moving real soon. Looking forward to seeing you. I have to laugh, when I am looking for something I can never fine it. Then one day when you are not looking it pops up. That s how this part went with David. Do you remember now?

Take Care, John
